COURSE OBJECTIVES: This is the first of a three-term sequence that studies how cinema historically evolved as both an institution and an art form. The aim of the course is to explore the history of world cinema's beginnings and develop the critical and analytic skills to analyze particular film works and movements.

CLASS MEETINGS & PROCEDURES: There will be two lectures each week, one on Tuesday afternoons and one accompanying the main screening(s) on Thursday afternoons. Discussion sections meet weekly on Fridays. Attendance at lectures, films and discussion sections is required.

DISCUSSION SECTION POLICIES: You must be registered for a discussion section in order to receive a grade in this course. Attendance is mandatory in discussion sections and participation in weekly discussion counts towards your final grade.

Two absences from your weekly discussion will lower your final grade by 5 points out of a 100-point scale (so a 91% or an A- would drop to an 86% or a B). Three absences equal a failing grade for the course. Specific discussion section policies and procedures will be addressed by your GTF during your first meeting. Your GTF is directly responsible for grading your exams and papers. If you need help or have questions with your course work, your first step should be to contact your GTF. Of course, you may also see me during office hours with questions or concerns.

ACADEMIC HONESTY & PLAGIARISM: You are responsible for understanding and adhering to the standards of academic honesty outlined in the student handbook. Document ALL sources consulted in preparing your work, including TV shows, magazines, your friends, parents, and, of course, anything found on the web. At a minimum, documented plagiarism will result in course failure.

ACCESSIBLE EDUCATION: If you have a disability that you believe may affect your performance in this course, please contact your GTF the first week of the term so we can make the necessary arrangements for your full access to the course and its activities.

PLEASE NOTE: It is your responsibility to schedule exam accommodations with the Accessible Education Center (uoaec@uoregon.edu ) or 541-346-1155).

GRADES will be based on:

40%	3 written film analyses 1=Production/Exhibition Exercise + 1 page Essay (10%) 2=Research Analysis Essay I (10%) 3=Research Analysis Essay II (20%)
10%	Discussion Section Participation
25%	Midterm exam
25%	Final exam

EXAMS: The in-class mid term and final exams will include multiple-choice, True/False, matching, short answer and essay questions. Students requiring special arrangements due to learning disabilities for either of the exams must contact their GTF no later than 3 weeks before each exam.

TEXTS: Film History: An Introduction, (Kristin Thompson and David Bordwell, 3rd edition) and A Short Guide to Writing About Film (Timothy Corrigan, 8th edition) are both required. With the exception of Week 1, reading assignments must be completed before Tuesday's lecture.

BLACKBOARD: The Blackboard site for this course contains important course-related materials including assignments and weekly key terms, as well as additional readings. Please check Blackboard regularly for updates.

NOTICE: This course may screen films that contain graphic violence, explicit sex and otherwise adult themes/situations. If, for whatever reason, such subject matter makes you uncomfortable, it is worth considering whether this course is right for you. If there are specific topics that might be difficult for you, please discuss this with me or your GTF as soon as possible.
