

English 427: Chaucer

Warren Ginsberg
PLC 257 6-3958
Office:T-Th 12.30-2.00
warren@uoregon.edu

SYLLABUS

Mar	29	Introduction
	31	Boethius, Consolation of Philosophy (1-3)
Apr	5	Boethius, Consolation of Philosophy (4-5)
	7	Romance of the Rose (selections)
	12	Canterbury Tales: General Prologue
	14	No Class
	19	Canterbury Tales: General Prologue
	21	Knight's Tale	PAPER DUE
	26	Knight's Tale
	28	Miller's Tale / Reeve's & Cook's Tale
May	3	Wife of Bath's Tale
	5	Wife of Bath's Tale
	10	Wife of Bath's Tale
	12	MIDTERM
	17	Clerk's Tale
	19	Franklin's Tale
	24	Pardoner's Tale
	26	Prioress' Tale
	31	Nun's Priest's Tale	PAPER DUE
June	2	Nun's Priest's Tale/Manciple's Tale Parson's Tale / Retractions

FINAL: TUESDAY, JUNE 7, 8.00 AM.

Requirements: Midterm (15%), 2 papers (40%), Final (20%), Quizzes (10%), Class participation (15%). Papers must be handed in on the day they are due; you will lose one full grade for each day it is late (An A becomes a B).

Attendance: Attendance will be taken. 2 unexplained absences are allowed; your grade will be lowered one level (i.e. A becomes A-) each time you miss a class without an acceptable explanation (e.g. medical; doctor's note). No make-ups for missed quizzes if you are absent without explanation.

Academic Integrity: If you cheat on any exam or plagiarize (or collaborate) when you write your papers, you will be given an F and immediately expelled from the course. A report will be sent to the appropriate University officials.

Learning Outcomes:

1. to read Chaucer's language and works with discernment;
2. to understand cultural and/or historical information that situates the Canterbury Tales in late medieval England;
3. to perform critical, formal analyses of the texts;
4. to write focused, analytical essays in clear, grammatical prose;
5. to employ logic, creativity, and interpretive skills to produce original, persuasive arguments

Links

New Chaucer Society <http://newchaucersociety.org/>

For pronunciation: Harvard site:
<http://www.courses.fas.harvard.edu/~chaucer/>